Enrichment: Viniculture & Traditions of Bordeaux. A local expert introduces you to the rich winemaking heritage of this celebrated region.

Bordeaux Walking Tour. Get acquainted with the history and beautiful architecture of this dynamic wine capital on the Garonne River. Originally inhabited by Celtic tribes around 300 B.C. and called Burdigala, Bordeaux later served as the capital of the Roman province of Aquitania. In the 12th century, after Eleanor of Aquitaine's husband was crowned King Henry II of England, the region became English territory and remained under English rule for three centuries. Following the Hundred Years War (1337-1453) between England and France, the French regained control of Bordeaux. By the 18th century, Bordeaux's lucrative wine trade and advantageous location had transformed it into one of Europe's largest and most prosperous ports, known as the Port of the Moon due to river's crescent-shaped curve. The city of Bordeaux flourished and expanded with grand boulevards, elegant public buildings and the private mansions of wealthy bourgeois families.

With your guide, stroll past the Grand Théâtre designed by Parisian architect Victor Louis; the regal, 15th-century Porte Cailhau gate, the Place du Parlement and other landmarks of this UNESCO World Heritage site. Before the handsome buildings of the Place de la Bourse along the river, take in the expansive Miroir d'Eau, or Water Mirror, a wide reflecting pool built in 2006 that's become a popular spot to linger. In the last two decades, the waterfront area has been revitalized with the development of new parks, a pedestrian-friendly promenade and a tramway. (Moderate)

Relax over lunch at a restaurant with your group.

La Cité du Vin. Experience a fascinating interactive journey through all facets of wine culture and winemaking at this modern museum, which opened in 2016. Learn about wine's historical impact, its influence on the arts, terroirs around the world, the complexities of viticulture and more. Afterward, enjoy a glass of wine complemented by scenic views over Bordeaux in the museum's Belvedere room. (Moderate)

Free Time: Select a wonderful spot for dinner in town. Throughout your journey, your Travel Director can offer dining recommendations and assist with reservations.

Day 4 | Saint-Émilion

Renaissance Bordeaux Hotel

B | L

Saint-Émilion. Journey into the heart of the breathtaking Bordeaux wine region to Saint-Émilion, a medieval town surrounded by lush vineyards. The Romans first cultivated grapes here, and by the Middle Ages, vineyards were thriving on the region's many small estates. The growth of the wine business was helped by the town's proximity to the Way of St. James pilgrimage route and the establishment of a special jurisdiction in the 12th century under English rule that ensured the quality of Saint-Émilion wines. Today, the Jurisdiction of Saint-Émilion has been recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage site for its idyllic vineyard landscape, historic architecture and continued cultural tradition of winemaking.

Learn about Saint-Émilion's interesting history on a guided walk through its charming, winding lanes. Named after an eighth-century monk from Brittany who settled in a cave here and performed miracles, Saint-Émilion evolved into an important religious community over time. During your explorations, head down into the impressive Monolithic Church with subterranean sections that were carved out of the limestone hillside in the 12th century. (Moderate)

Take a break for a delicious lunch in Saint-Émilion.

Bordeaux Winery Visit. After lunch, travel to a highly regarded winery and draw upon your newly acquired wine knowledge as you sample fine French vintages. (Moderate)

Free Time: Return to Bordeaux for an evening at leisure.

Day 5 | Arcachon Bay

Renaissance Bordeaux Hotel

Arcachon Bay. Delight in the natural beauty of this picturesque bay, known as Le Bassin by locals, featuring shallow waters that are ideal for oyster farming. Take a pleasant jaunt aboard a traditional wooden pinasse boat to see local landmarks like Dune du Pilat, Europe's largest sand dune; Cap Ferrat and its lighthouse; and the cabane tchanquées, wooden cabins on stilts built by oyster farmers to watch over their farms. Finish with a tasting of fresh oysters by the shore and lunch afterward at a waterfront restaurant. (Moderate)

Free Time: Make your own plans back in Bordeaux later today.

Day 6 | Bayonne | Biarritz | San Sebastián, Spain

B | L

This morning, after breakfast, check out of the hotel. Depart for Spain with stops in the French Basque region.

Bayonne. This lovely gem at the confluence of the Adour and Nive rivers is France's Basque capital. During the Middle Ages, its majestic Cathedral of Saint Mary of Bayonne was an important stop for pilgrims traveling along the famous Way of St. James route to Santiago de Compostela in Spain. Visit this stunning church and walk through the Gothic cloisters, then stroll around Bayonne's historic center with your guide. (Moderate)

Relish lunch at a cozy Basque cidrerie, or cider house, where you can fill your glass right from the cask.

Biarritz. A fashionable resort town since the 19th century, Biarritz is also regarded as one of France's great surfing spots. On a guided walk along the waterfront, start at the Church of St. Eugénie and make your way to the rugged rocks of Rocher de la Vierge, an outcrop connected to the shore by a bridge built by Gustave Eiffel. A statue of the Virgin Mary stands atop the rock. From the southern side, you can see San Sebastián on a clear day. Visit the old fishing port and the medieval Atalaye watchtower, where fishermen kept an eye out for whales. (Moderate)

Cross the border into Spain and check in to the Catalonia Donosti Hotel in San Sebastián.

Day 7 | San Sebastián

Catalonia Donosti Hotel

B | D

San Sebastián. Known as Donostia in Basque, San Sebastián rose to prominence as a resort town in the mid-1800s when Queen Isabella II, following advice from her doctor, chose it as her summer seaside retreat. Spanish royalty and aristocrats followed, adding a touch of glamour, and the city expanded with grand Belle Époque buildings that reflected its new status. Take a walking tour along the narrow lanes of the buzzing old town to see its highlights, including the 18th-century baroque Basílica de Santa María del Coro. Then, stroll on the waterfront promenade for spectacular views of La Concha Bay, known for its beaches like Concha and Ondarreta. Conclude with a visit to the San Telmo Museum, focused on the history of Basque culture. (Moderate)

Free Time: The afternoon is yours to explore San Sebastián on your own.

Enrichment: A History of Northern Spain. For thousands of years, the Basque people have inhabited this mountainous region and preserved their distinctive culture and their language, Euskara, one of Europe's oldest. Delve into the story of this alluring corner of Spain, known as Euskadi, or Basque Country.

AHI Connects | Meet the People . Join a diverse group of residents for dinner and conversation about life in the Basque region.

Day 8 | Bilbao

Catalonia Donosti Hotel

B | L

Bilbao & the Guggenheim Museum. Visit the acclaimed Guggenheim Bilbao along the Nervión River, regarded as one of the most important buildings of the 20th century. Designed by architect Frank Gehry, the structure's stunning, curvy exterior is clad in thin sheets of titanium and features glass and limestone elements. After it opened in 1997, it was the catalyst for an ambitious revitalization of Bilbao. View the museum's striking modern and contemporary art collections with a guide. Afterward, enjoy a panoramic tour of the city's top sites, followed by lunch and some free time in Bilbao. (Moderate)

Free Time: Make your own plans for dinner in San Sebastián. When it comes to food, this vibrant city has a culinary reputation second to none! Its exceptional gastronomic scene draws visitors from around the globe looking to enjoy its bevy of Michelin-starred eateries and innovative pintxos (tapas) bars. Each pintxos bar usually offers different bites. Platters of cold pintxos line the bar, but you'll have to order the hot dishes. Many people have a drink and a few pintxos at one spot, then head to the next place for another round of drinks and dishes. See your Travel Director for recommendations and help with reservations.

B | L

This morning, depart for Laguardia in Spain's renowned Rioja wine region. Straddling both sides of the Ebro River, the Rioja is divided into three subregions, and Laguardia is the capital of the Rioja Alavesa subregion.

Laguardia. Founded in the 10th century, this pretty, compact walled town sits in the verdant Ebro Valley beside the Cantabrian Mountains. Feel immersed in its medieval ambience on a guided walk down its pedestrian-only lanes. Take in the 13th-century fortifications and entrance gates; the Romanesque church; the Plaza Mayor and its clock; and the underground network of wine cellars beneath town. (Moderate)
